AMERICA'S GREATEST
COMEDienneSPLENDID AUDIENCE AT FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Another responsive audience greeted the evangelists, Brooks, and Fitz, at the First Christian church last evening. On account of the attraction at the high school, the services were dismissed earlier than usual in order that those who hold season tickets might attend.

Just before the regular service the Men's Union held an interesting and purposeful meeting in the primary rooms of the church. This organization together with the Women's Union, is very effective in the great plan which the church has instituted recently in raising funds for the running expenses of the church and personal work.

Prof. Fitz sang "The Penitent" by Van de Water. It is the story of the prodigal son, set to heroic music. The accompaniment was faultlessly played by Mrs. Simpson. The musical critics who were present, pronounced this son the best Prof. Fitz has yet rendered. In the climaxes his great voice completely filled the auditorium. The audience felt that the song suited the singer in that both are great in the elements of power.

In his discussion of the prodigal son last night, Rev. Brooks spoke of the affections of a father for his son and the great sacrifices which he is always willing to make to save him from disgrace and shame. He said it is not necessary that a man become a prodigal before he is saved, or be overcome with sad experiences before he makes a profession of his faith in Christ and obey his commandments. His illustrations were unique and pointed. He spoke with unusual sentiment and stirred his listeners to intense interest and reflection.

A Bible school rally was announced for next Sunday. One year ago the attendance was 1600. An attempt will be made to equal that number. Prof. Fitz will sing and will use the children in the chorus work. Two bands on the church debt will be crowned with appropriate ceremonies. Mr. Brooks will give each one present a half tone copy of the great son's class of a year ago. It will be prized always as a souvenir.

The services begin this evening at 7:30. The sermon will be concerning "Sowing Wild Oats." Prof. Fitz will be at his best in "The Sinner and the Song." The regular First Christian church wide quartet has been asked to sing.

NEW LICENSE

compelled to take out a license. In determining the number of saloons in a municipality the population in only the wet territory should be the basis.

Persons filing a protest against an applicant for a license should be given a hearing.

Whenever the majority of the electors in a block or precinct file a protest against the granting of a license in that block or precinct, no license should be granted.

The phrase, "pecuniary interest" used in specifying that no person or company other than the licensee shall maintain this in any saloon, should be repealed.

Sections of the license law which provides a special kind of trial and appeal for a liquor dealer who breaks law, should be repealed.

Manufacturers and licensed dealers should be prohibited from contributing directly or indirectly to any political campaign fund.

The section of the license law which makes it a penalty for a minor to buy liquor or to misrepresent his age in order to purchase it, should be repealed.

Stricter definition of the term "good moral character" should be defined to exclude liquor dealers who sell to minors, habitual drunkards or persons on whom he has been notified that others depend on him for support.

A licensed liquor dealer should be prohibited from allowing a minor in his saloon or selling on credit. The proposed bill to compel all saloons in the state to close at 10 p. m., which Representative Boyer, of Hamilton, expects to introduce, is said not to be included in the program of dry leaders but they will support it in a perfunctory manner.

Representative Deaton's measure to provide that liquor dealers shall contribute one per cent of their net earnings to the state industrial accident fund for compensation of persons or dependents of persons injured or killed because they were intoxicated, will be supported strongly by anti-liquor interests.

Another dry measure is the bill to prohibit saloonkeepers to sell liquor to aliens.

Other proposed measures which are favored but for which the anti-liquor interests will not stand sponsor, are those providing for creation of a commission to make a survey of vice conditions in the state; and providing a means by which owners of property leased to resort keepers may be enjoined by civil suit against such rental, and banded to prevent future use of the property for immoral purposes.

It is estimated more than half the saloons in the state would be eliminated by the anti-liquor plan that the population in wet territory only should furnish the basis for computing the number of licenses to be granted.

Notice To Members of Association, No. 77, N. A. S. E. You are hereby requested to meet at the First Baptist church at one o'clock Friday afternoon to attend the funeral of our late brother, Cornelius Molster.

DIVORCE REFUSED

Judge Thomas refused the petition for a divorce filed recently by Minnie Fry against her husband, Calvin Fry, in common pleas court Thursday morning. The wife, however, was awarded $7 a week alimony and custody of the minor children until further order of the court. Milner, Miller and Seair were the wife's attorneys.

PROOF OF A GREAT KIDNEY MEDICINE

Several years ago I was taken violently ill. My troubles began with a pain in my stomach, so severe that it seemed as if knives were cutting me. I was treated by two of the best physicians in the country, and consulted another. None of them suspected that the cause of my trouble was kidney disease. They all told me that I had cancer of the stomach, and would die. I grew so weak that I could not walk any more than a child a month old, and I only weighed sixty pounds. One day my brother saw in the paper your advertisement of Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy. He bought me a bottle and I took it. They could see a change in me so they obtained more, and I took in all thirty bottles of Swamp-Root. That may seem a great deal, but I spent more than the cost of thirty bottles of Swamp-Root for doctor's medicine, and it did not do me a particle of good. I was so weak and run down that I took considerable time to build me up again. I am well now, thanks to Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and weigh 118 pounds, and am keeping house for my husband and brother on a farm.

Gratefully yours,

CITY IS FULL OF HOBOES

Pedestrians were attracted by the suspicious actions of four rough looking men standing behind a telephone pole at Billy Maier's cafe Wednesday night.

The men had been previously surveying the Reimert clothing store. Discovering that they were being watched the men "hot-footed" down Sixth street and ran north through an alley towards Seventh street. Officers Clark, Beaumont and Link, gave chase and though they failed to find them rounded up four other hoboies who had been begging on the streets. Jack Dempsey, a tramp showworker, who has been here at different times, was also run in for loitering. All were ordered out of town Thursday morning.

Saturday will be "Men's Day" at THE FASHION and everything is in readiness to meet the rush in our men's department. Avail yourself of the final reductions offered on

Men's Suits and Overcoats

You know we are going to discontinue handling them, get away with them entirely. Part with Men's Clothing for good. We can't enter to you both and we must give you gentlemen up for the ladies and besides a man would much rather trade in a man's store where no women are around. The ladies here in this store always feel like at home and they also claimed "The men had no business here." We were in for it, we could never mention men's clothing in an advertisement, never display them in our windows. It's too bad that we could not have a separate department being in no way connected with the ladies' department, thereby not causing any interference, but as it is we must give it up and real quick too.

We Have Promised To Give Them Away And Pay For The Hauling Besides, If Nothing Else Would Do and the time has come, that we are compelled to sacrifice them to the real limit in order to enliven more interest AND SATURDAY MARKS OUR FINAL REDUCTION. Read the prices and be amazed! See window display beginning with Thursday.) Have your pick and tell us to reserve it for you for Saturday.

DUNLAP BOY ACQUITTED

The innocence of Clarence Dunlap, 16, accused by his sister, Mrs. Ed Hammond of knowing something about the fire at the Brushhart barn on Tuesday night, was established before Judge Reilly in juvenile court Thursday morning, and the lad was released. Police officers and Chief McKeith agreed with the court he had been unjustly accused.

Dunlap was arrested by the police at his home, near Ninth and Washington streets Wednesday night after his sister had lodged complaint against him. He was questioned in police court Thursday morning by the mayor, who later turned him over to the juvenile court.

He denied ever having threatened to "burn up" his sister, denied having borrowed any money from her, and said he never visited her home because he knew that she did not like him. Their only disagreement, he said, occurred one week ago last Sunday when she called to visit their mother, and this was concerning a stray chicken which they had been feeding.

Dunlap's manner in court produced a good impression upon the mayor and the police, which was strengthened when his aged mother, who seems to be devoted to him, insisted that he had not left the house on the night of the fire.

On the way to the court house Thursday morning, Fire Chief McQuint and Officer Roy Moore stopped with the boy at Wurster Brothers' drug store. George Wurster, as soon as he saw the boy, declared that he was not the one he had seen running from the direction of the Brushhart barn on the night of the fire. He said that the person he saw was fully 30 years of age, bareheaded, and was covered with straw and snow, and claimed that a man had knocked him in the head. He also said something about a sister living over there where the fire was raging.

BETTER EYESIGHT

Many people still speak of near-sightedness, far-sightedness, astigmatism, etc., as though they were some form of eye disease, but they are no more a disease than are red hair and freckles.

These eye conditions are caused by the faulty shape or false position of the eyeball, which condition renders vision unsatisfactory and painful.

It is our profession to relieve such conditions, and this relief is brought about by the correct application of perfectly ground lenses, mounted in a suitable frame by our skillful fingers.

HERE'S ANOTHER AD ABOUT BRACELET WATCHES

The Wrist Watch is of course primarily a ladies' need, though in these days when most men go "vestless" in summer it's no novelty to see a watch strapped to a man's wrist.

Our desire here, now, is to bring our stock of Bracelet Watches before EVERYBODY who is interested in the subject.

For in our opinion we have a very desirable showing of this style of timepiece.

We personally choose them. We made sure that as an ornament they would appeal to those who like novelty.

Also we made it a point to see that these watches will give a good time service.

Bracelet Watches, $2.50 to $35.00. See them in our window.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Jan. 21.—A further advance was registered by leading stocks today on continued heavy dealings.

Stocks strengthened again in the final hour after some hesitation caused by heaviness in Missouri Pacific stocks and bonds.

The closing was strong. Stocks were in brisk demand during the early session, trading in the first hour almost equalling Tuesday's high record. Missouri Pacific led in point of activity but was erratic, losing over a point on realizing sales. Before midday, however, this was more than regained, that stock as well as others of greater potential value, selling at best prices for the current movement. There were gains, also, in many low priced shares, including Great Northern Ore, and Denver, Rio Grande and Pacific, together with the casual specialties. Bonds were up with the stock.

The rally which attended yesterday's late dealing in stocks was resumed at the opening. Reading, Southern Pacific, Canadian Pacific, U. S. Steel, and Bethlehem Steel pfd., rose a point or more. Trading was on a very broad scale, especially in steel, which again changed hands in large lots. Missouri Pacific opened lower but soon recovered. There was unusually heavy trading in American Telephone and St. Paul convertible bond issues at slight advances. London furnished its customary range of lower prices for Americans.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Largely as a result of offerings being unusually meager, wheat rose today higher than at any time since the war began. Before the ascent was checked the market climbed to a point seven half above yesterday's lowest figure.

No extraordinary excitement accompanied the bulge in wheat, the volume of buying orders not seeming to be more than normal. An advance at Liverpool, with predictions that Argentine shipments would be light tended to encourage the bulls. After opening at a range varying from 1-4 off to 3-4 up, the market receded slightly and then began to soar, but afterwards declined more than 1-4 from the top.

Corn went up with wheat. There was a good general commission demand with some signs of a call from exporters. The opening which was a shade lower to 1-4 and 3-8 advance, was followed by a little bearish reaction and then a material upturn all around.

Oats took the same path as corn. Trade, however, was well distributed on both sides of the market.

Provisions responded to the grain strength. An early decline due to lower war prices was early wiped out.

CHILLI TEAM, PROPERTY, ETC., BROUGHT ONLY $600

Those beloved Chilliote Babes, paraphernalia, grandstand, bleachers, fence and franchise in the Ohio State league went under the cruel and heartless hammer Thursday afternoon.

Sold as a whole from in front of the courthouse steps in Chillicothe the entire outfit was bought in by Dan Cahill. Chilliote's famous roster and baseball enthusiasm. The price paid was $600 and A. L. Sweeney acted as auctioneer. When put up separately the players and entire equipment only brought the magnificent sum of $244. This was too much for

W. W. PUMPS "CRITICISED"

Vigorous criticism of the high service pumps in operation at the pumping station of the new water works was made by J. H. Howland, chief engineer of the committee on fire prevention of the National Board of Fire Underwriters of New York City, to Service Director Wm. Gergens Thursday morning, after he had concluded a thorough investigation of the new plant.

Mr. Howland added that bursts and blowouts of the water mains were liable to occur while they were in operation under present conditions.

He also expressed surprise at the location of the big reservoir, claiming that when he was here three years ago he was told that it would be located on Timmings Hill. He informed Mr. Gergens that another reservoir would have to be built nearer the city or the city would have to lay another 30-inch main from the reservoir to the city before the city would get the advantage of the low insurance rates.

Mr. Howland made a thorough inspection of the plant and also went over the plans, showing the location of the different water mains throughout the city. His inspection included the large reservoir on Basham Hill.

He spent Thursday afternoon with Safety Director Lake and Chief McQuat, going over the equipment of the fire department and making recommendations. Among the latter was a recommendation that 3-inch hose be used for street service, and 2 1/2-inch hose for the balance of the service. Local officials advised Mr. Howland that every effort would be made to bring the equipment up to the standard prescribed by the Association which Mr. Howland represents.

Residents in the vicinity of the Lincoln school building are overjoyed because of the fact that a new U. S. flag has replaced the old one, which was in tatters. There was talk of petitioning the board of education for a new flag, but such a move is now unnecessary.

Suit To Divide The Joseph July Estate

Suit in partition was filed in common pleas court Thursday afternoon by Attorneys Blair and Kinke, representing Jane M. July, guardian of Terese M. July, a minor, aged 17, of Union township, against Florence Smith (nee July) and Jane M. July. The suit involves two tracts of land in Union township, containing 123 acres.

The plaintiff represents that she is the widow of the late Joseph July, who died in 1909, leaving an estate to be divided among his six children, subject to the widow's dower. She further relates that upon her death she acquired the interest of four of the children, the defendant, Florence Smith, and her ward being the exceptions.

She now seeks to have the court set aside her dower right and also set aside her four-sixths interest in the remainder. Appointment of the plaintiff as guardian of her minor daughter was made a few days ago for the purpose of bringing the present suit.

The Year's Opportunity

Y EARS are but artificial divisions of eternity. They might as well be counted from one date as from another. Yet each First of January we seem to take new courage. We seem to feel that the slate upon which have been recorded our deeds and misdeeds for the past twelve months has been wiped clean. Instinctively we seem to realize that a fresh chance for better work is before us, a record yet to be made, an opportunity that is new in front of us.

This year we make one resolution to make the most of our opportunities. For us that old man that we will strive to give bigger values, even bigger than they are now. If we will strive to be even more useful and practical to our customers; that we will set even a higher standard of business dealings and service.

If you want your feet fit properly with good shoes come to the store that can better the goods.

MAYOR FIGURES IN CASES

A singular feature of Mayor Frick's police court session Thursday was that he, himself, figured in two cases he had before him.

It was perhaps the four dollars the mayor had paid Tom Moore Wednesday morning for beautifying his lawn on Eighth street that started Tom on his jag and led him to steal a buggy robe from James Maxwell.

That chicken Clarence Dunlap referred to as causing a disagreement between him and his sister was the same stray pullet that the mayor found in his auto garage some days ago. He boosted it out into the alley, but it came back and he had

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, ailments, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 460. Residence A-460.

Dear Dolly—I met a fellow three weeks ago and he wants me to meet him at South Portsmouth and go to Huntington the last of this week with him and get married. He seems to be a nice man and I like him very much. He says he has money and can provide a good home for my living. Got no home. He says he has been married, no children. I have a friend who only knew her husband one month and they get along alright. Do you think he is in earnest? Please advise.

P. E. C.
If the man wanted to do the right thing he would get married here in Portsmouth. You are of age, so why run off and get married. Chances are he would desert you at Huntington and not marry you at all. If you go up there or anywhere else take some responsible older person along with you for a chaperone. I certainly would not advise you to marry a man on such a short acquaintance. He might have a wife for all you know. Don't believe everything he tells you. Never marry for a home. You are not the only girl who has to work for a living. You ought to be glad you have a job and able to work.

Dear Miss Wise—Do you think a boy of 20 is too young to get married?
WOULD-LIKE-TO-KNOW.
Yes. As a rule a boy of 20 does

OLD-TIME COLD CURE---DRINK TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Brewster Tea, or in the German folks call it, "Hamburger Brust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teaspoon full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.
It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.

Dear Dolly—Is it all right for girls to go on hay rides?
BLUE EYES.
It's too cold these nights for hay rides or any other kind of rides, Blue Eyes.

Miss Wise—Will you please publish in tonight's Times what will destroy roaches. They have gotten into my kitchen cabinet and I want to get rid of them as soon as possible.

MRS. N. H. N.
Borax generously sprinkled about the corners infested by roaches will rid them of the pests in a short time. It is well, however, to occasionally use the borax to prevent their reappearance. If this does not have the desired effect you can get a roach exterminator at the drug store.

Dear Dolly—Is it all right for girls to take buggy rides with boys?
COUNTRY KID.
Yes, if you take your mother or father along. Otherwise it is all wrong.

Dear Dolly—Please tell me how to clean a white felt hat and also how to make fudge!

McDERMOTT GIRL.
Rub the hat with corn meal or black magnesium. Chocolate fudge—three cups granulated sugar, one cup sweet milk, one fourth cup Baker's chocolate. Cook until it forms a soft ball in water, then add one large teaspoonful of butter, and a pinch of flour; stir until it begins to harden. One cup chopped nuts may be added when the fudge is taken off the stove. Flavor with vanilla.

Dear Miss Wise—I am a girl of 13 years. Is there any harm in a boy to walk home from church with me? If he is a nice boy? I am in the eighth grade. Is there any harm in going to a little dance? It is no public dance. How long should I wear my dresses? I am not very large. I have curly hair, should I let it hang down? Thanking you very much.

A TERRAFLA GIRL.
If you accidentally overtake a boy coming home from church it is no harm to walk with him, but don't make dates or meet him on the corner. I think a girl of your age should better be studying her lessons instead of thinking about boys and dances. You are too young to attend any kind of a dance private or public. Why not spend your spare time studying your spelling book. Quite a number of simple words in your letter were misspelled. Wear your dresses a little above the shoe top and let your hair hang down your back.

I think a girl of your age should better be studying her lessons instead of thinking about boys and dances. You are too young to attend any kind of a dance private or public. Why not spend your spare time studying your spelling book. Quite a number of simple words in your letter were misspelled. Wear your dresses a little above the shoe top and let your hair hang down your back.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

Don't stay gray! Here's a simple recipe that anybody can apply with a hair brush.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color has been known for centuries. Sage used to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or turned out dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

Just brushing at home is money and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 60-cent bottle of "Wyneth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itching, itchy scalp and falling hair. A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair to naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and abundant.

TOM MOORE IN COURT FOR THE 403RD TIME

Tom Moore, a nurseryman and fish dealer, was arrested by Officer Grant Golings in the East End Wednesday evening for alleged stealing a $19.99 buggy robe belonging to James Maxwell. In police court this morning the mayor announced that according to Moore's own admission this was his 403rd appearance in court.

Moore was still shamming a jag when brought into court on Thursday morning hanging his head and throwing himself limply over the back of a chair. Asked what was wrong with him he said "I'm drunk, I'm guilty of what ever it is, for I was lashed up sufficiently to do most anything yesterday." He denied knowing to whom he had sold the robe but thought he might be able to tell after he had once sobered up.

Have Bought Lot For New Offices

At the offices of the Portsmouth Steel company it was stated Thursday that the firm had already purchased a lot on Rhodes avenue and Vine street in New Boston as a site for its modern new office building.

"We have had the plans for this structure prepared for some time and work would probably have begun before this if conditions were not as they are at present," said Stanley Hopkins of the company, Thursday. "Just as soon as business shows signs of reviving substantially work will be commenced on the new structure," he said.

The private offices of General Manager Andrew Glass were moved from the bank building to New Boston, Thursday.

RUBBER HOSE CAUSE OF A GAS EXPLOSION

William Kerr, cook at the Dravo Construction company's camp near Sciotoville, was painfully burned about the head, face and body, one window was blown out, and the interior of a room badly damaged, from a gas explosion at the rooming house of Katie Bauer, 716 Washington street, early Thursday morning.

Kerr had just arisen and was in the act of lighting the gas jet in his room when the explosion occurred. His body was enveloped in a sheet of flame, and the force of the explosion tore out the window of his room, including the stone ledge.

The explosion was caused by gas escaping from a rubber connection which was fastened to the gas pipe below the jet, connecting with a small gas stove in the room. The stove was also turned over by the force of the explosion. Firemen said afterward that the odor of gas was strong in Kerr's room, indicating that the gas had been escaping some time before he awakened.

An alarm was turned into the Seventh street station just across the street, and firemen responded with chemicals. The blaze was extinguished with little difficulty, but not until the paper had been burned off the walls and the greater portion of the bed clothing ruined.

Kerr's burns required medical attention, and he will be laid up for several days. His face, neck, breast, arms, hands, legs and feet were painfully burned. Only his night clothing shielded his body from the force of gas. At first it was thought that he would have to be removed to the hospital for treatment, but it was later decided to care for him at the Bauer house.

The house is the property of Philip M. Strick, and the damage is limited to the broken window.

FATALLY POISONED

Failure to throw off through the kidneys and urinary tracts the poisons which hourly collect in the body often proves fatal. Nature is prevented from eliminating out your system, because of some painful or loathsome disease you have contracted, you are in positive danger.

The kidneys and bladder are the most essential organs in your body. If they purify the body of the poisonous germs which are always there, you have good health. If they become clogged and congested, these germs thrive and multiply a thousand-fold, and upset your entire system. Such a condition is indicated by cloudy, bloody and discolored urine, inconvenience and pain in the urinary tracts, prostate disturbance, gravel, stone in the bladder, uric acid or lead poisoning, sharp rheumatic pains, lumbago, swollen feet, hands or ankles, swelling under the eyes, sleeplessness, nervousness and

Good Old "Pep" For Tired Folks

HOW RUN DOWN, NERVE SICK, DISCOURAGED MEN AND WOMEN ARE FINDING NEW NERVES, NEW HEALTH, NEW LIFE, NEW COURAGE

"Doggone it. Time to go to work again." When the alarm clock rang this morning did you bound from bed, wide awake, bright eyed, clear minded and whistle while you dressed? Did you go to breakfast with the appetite of a horse and leave for work feeling "fit, brimful of ideas and energy, ready to do your work with a will?"

Not if you're the average citizen. You stretched and yawned and said "another day" and you arose slowly feeling vaguely despondent and uneasy and not a bit rested. The day's tasks were a thing to dread. Something nasty had crawled in your mouth and slept there all night. You had no appetite, your work was mechanical and lacked purpose. True you got in the rut finally and pulled through after a fashion, but you weren't a success and you realized it. You lacked ambition, energy, vim, nerve force and you couldn't concentrate. There was no joy or happiness in the day's work or the reward it brought you.

Such symptoms don't necessarily prove that you are ill, but they are certain indications of weakened nerve force and evidence that your nerve cells are not being properly nourished and strengthened. Your whole system—mental and physical—is below par and you are only 50 per cent efficient—just half your real self. In such a condition you can do nothing better or get quicker action than by taking a few weeks' treatment of the wonderful new nerve remedy called Margo.

This is the most remarkable prescription ever found for putting back the "good old pep" in folks who are chronically tired, demoralized or run down. The chief reason for its success is that it contains some of the most important elements of active living nerve force. Margo acts quickly. It gets straightway into your nerve cells and blood and freshens and brightens you right up. It gives you ambition, courage, will power and real vital vim and does not contain a single habit forming drug. It is always safe, easy, pleasant and efficient. Fisher & Streich Pharmacy and leading druggists everywhere sell it in large boxes—40 tablets in a package on an absolute guarantee of satisfaction or money back.

TOTES "ARTILLERY" TO CHURCH; IS FINED $200

Toting guns to church might do harm in Breckitt county or some other wild region like that, but it won't do in this community," said the Mayor, in fining William Kelly, an 18-year-old son of Rev. Sam Kelly, a United Baptist preacher, of 105 Waller street, $200 and costs, Thursday morning.

Young Kelly had been amusing himself in shooting a newly acquired revolver into the river while standing at one end of Granville Queens' houseboat at the foot of Waller street Wednesday evening, and made the mistake of taking the gun and remaining shells to the Free Will Baptist church on Front street. He placed the gun on a bench at his side. The sight of the artillery excited some of the worshippers and soon Officers Bramham and Campbell had the young man in tow.

He pleaded that he had purposely exposed the weapon and laid it on the bench so that no one could accuse him of carrying it concealed. He had carried it in his overalls and had forgotten about it when a friend asked him to go to church. Asked by the mayor why he had not left it at home when he passed there on his way to church, he said he had stopped at the house, but that his parents were absent. Chief McCarty told the court that the arresting officers reported that Kelly had rebounded the gun after coming up the river bank, and when they entered the church had tried to slip out without the gun.

The mayor told the boy he had made a bad trade when he exchanged a large for the gun and a small cash consideration, and said the heavy penalty in this state was intended to break up the practice of gun-toting. He also reminded him that Rev. C. T. Diamond, pastor of the Front street church, had been in just a day or two ago complaining that certain young men were causing disorders in his church.

Kelly protested that he could not be classed with this element, for he was not only a regular worshipper there, but a choir singer, and often times choir-leader. The mayor said he would investigate further, and if he found any mitigating circumstances might remit part of the fine later.

Kelly's father had been from Virginia, where he says his denomination, the United Baptist church, is quite strong. He says the United Baptist preachers serve without salary.

A WAY OUT

A Resident of Portsmouth Shows the Way

There's one effective way to relieve kidney backache. Lignum and plaster may relieve it.

But they seldom reach the cause.

Backache is caused by a diseased kidney.

Donn's Kidney Pills are for diseased kidneys.

Portsmouth people back them up.

Read a case of it.

O. W. Metzger, painter, 2233 Seventh street, Portsmouth, says:

"The first symptom of kidney trouble in my case was backache. I was chopping wood one day when a stitch took me in the small of my back and I had to be helped into the house. The kidney secretions were scanty and burned in passage. I also noticed that they contained sediment like brick dust. I treated with six physicians with no results. The first box of Donn's Kidney Pills helped me a great deal and after I had finished three boxes, I was cured. That cure has lasted for over five years."

WATERWORKS RUMPUS AT A LETTER WRITING STAGE

The mayor is not altogether satisfied with the contents of a letter from Harry McGowan, of the John H. McGowan company, of Cincinnati, relative to bettering conditions at the city pumping station, as promised a few days ago.

The mayor feels that there are some important matters that Mr. McGowan has either forgotten since the conference or he does not make his position quite clear. While he has not submitted Mr. McGowan's letter to the other members of the board of control he conveys his own personal attitude in the following reply:

Permit me to say that your letter does not carry with it the definiteness desired. The Board of Control has, as I stated to you in my office the afternoon of January the nineteenth, nineteen-fifteen, no objection to furnishing its employees as well as the specification and contract quantity of fuel to operate this plant while you are completing your contract with this city. That such continued operation of the plant shall at no time be questioned or considered as evidence of accepting the same prior to all units being completed and satisfactory to the City's council and board of control.

The Board, therefore, awaits a very prompt reply with reference to the request that you made while at the office, that you desired the city to use the plant during the time that you were completing your division and that such use and privilege should at no time be questioned or considered as tending toward an acceptance before the plant is satisfactory to the City Council and Board of Control, and that as you stated while in the office you intended to have it so before reporting it as such even though you were a year or more in your accomplishment.

If the last paragraph of this letter is your intent and purpose, as stated while in my office, reduce it to writing as you said you would and forward it to the board.

of control as a matter of record. Respectfully submitted, ADAM FRICK, President Board of Control.

Mr. McGowan's letter is as follows:

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 20, 1915.

Dear Sirs: Further referring to matters that were discussed in the Board meeting Monday evening, January 18, 1915, wish to advise that the writer as agreed visited the New Pumping Plant in your city, and conferred with your Mr. Shute and Mr. Watson, of the J. P. Wilmer company, in reference to the various installations made by us at the plant.

We have written to the Centrifugal Pump Works, Terry Steam Turbine company of Hartford, Conn., and to the Detroit Stoker company of Detroit, Mich., and requested that each of them have a representative in your city, Monday of the coming week, if possible, to inspect and test the prospective units that they are interested in, with a view of ascertaining definitely the capacities of each.

Our Mr. Healey and Mr. Ehlman are at present working on engine No. 2, which engine is located nearest the boiler room, and which was reported upon by your Mr. Herman as not operating to his satisfaction. Their work constitutes the readjusting and indexing of the steam valve gearing and cylinders, as well as looking over the pump units, so as to make this engine operate the same as No. 1, and to the satisfaction of your Mr. Herman.

There is no reason as far as we can see why you should discontinue the operating of the plant, as the adjustments and tests that we will make and which are above referred to, will not prevent you receiving service from the plant, and at all times supplying your city with the much desired filtered water.

We hereby give you permission to operate the plant until the respective adjustments have been

RUMANIA EXPECTED TO DECLARE WAR AGAINST HUNGARY

London, Jan. 21.—Russia's day say that the situation in the eastern theatre of the war remains unchanged. Certain semi-official summaries of events received in London by wireless from Berlin are somewhat more communicative. Such a message received recently says the Russians have had some successes in which their losses were heavy and that the Turks have been operating successfully in the Caucasus and are now marching on Egypt.

Telegrams reaching here from Berlin record the arrival there of Archduke Charles Francis, the Austrian crown prince and Dr. Van Helldorn-Holweg, the German imperial chancellor, who are to be joined shortly by Baron Buriann, the new Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, presumably for a conference regarding a plan of campaign against Russia, as well as the adoption of suitable measures against the prospective entrance into the war of Italy and Rumania.

In the western arena of the war the activity has been generally confined to artillery exchanges, except to the south of Metz, where sharp fighting promises interesting developments.

U. S. SHIP TO SAIL DESPITE WARNING OF GREAT BRITAIN

Washington, Jan. 21.—Treasury officials continued today the non-issuance of documentary proof of the bona fide transfer of the steamship Dacia, now loading cotton in Texas for German ports, from German to American registry. It was believed that this work would be completed during the day after which it was expected that a war risk insurance policy would be issued by the federal war risk bureau on the steamer's cargo of cotton.

Issuance of the policy, the rate on which is expected to be four per cent, practically was decided upon at a conference last night between Secretary McAdoo and Director Delano of the war risk bureau.

The proposed voyage of the Dacia will be undertaken, despite the warning of the British government that it would seize the vessel. The state department has notified the owners of the Dacia of the British government's decision and has left to them the responsibility of making the proposed voyage. Concerned of the genuineness of the Dacia's purchase, department officials reiterate their belief that the vessel will have a good case before the prize court.

British Isles No Longer Isolated, Says Berlin Press

Berlin, (via Amsterdam and London), Jan. 21.—The isolation of the British Isles is conquered, successfully, says the Morgen Post in its comment on the air raid made by the Germans on the English coast. "What use to Great Britain," it adds, "have the surrounding seas and water, dropping bombs?"

ITALIAN GOVERNMENT PROVIDES FOR RELIEF

Weeks Follows Burton In Ship Purchase Filibuster

Washington, Jan. 21.—The government ship purchase bill was before the senate again today for discussion with Senator Weeks, of Massachusetts, ready to take the floor to renew his attack in continuation of the Republican filibuster against the measure. Senator Weeks is continuing the fight begun by Senator Burton, of Ohio, who yielded the floor to him late yesterday after a three days' assault on the measure. Senator Weeks was well armed for the fray, with his desk piled high with a mass of dates. While the Democratic leaders

NOTHING NEW IN THE WORLD.

There's not much that is new in the world. We seem to live and progress in cycles and the men and women of today are only doing and marveling at the things that the men and women of yesterday dreamed of, laughed at as chimerical or attempted. Listen for a moment:

Tuesday evening we were looking over an old collection of second hand books that we had purchased and spent an hour with a bound volume of "Hadden's Dollar Magazine", of the year 1849. One of the leading articles of the number for September, 1849, was "Aerial Navigation," by F. Saunders, and might be interesting to us, showing that men were trying then what the Wrights accomplished today. And Mr. Saunders, in concluding his article, says this:

"Besides their astronomical, geographical and meteorological uses, aerostatic machines are capable of being rendered eminently available in warfare, as we learn from the following extract from a recent journal, which says that an English aeronaut named Coxwell, who has lately been demonstrating a novel system of aerial warfare at Ellerfield, Germany, ascended in company with a German gentleman, and when the balloon had attained a considerable altitude, he descended from the rar to the aerostatic battery, and commenced a sham bombardment of the town beneath him. This performance in mid-air at once amazed and amused the spectators, whilst a party of scientific gentlemen decided that the ingenious plans of Mr. Coxwell might prove available for immensely useful purposes in actual warfare. In this connection it may perhaps be but little known to many now living that Napoleon frightened the inhabitants of Great Britain by threatening to invade that country by means of balloons. He said that from the improvements made in balloons he would soon be able to cross the channel with his army in divisions."

And then Wednesday morning we picked up a paper and read that the night before a fleet of German air ship balloons had actually made a raid on England and had bombarded various places in that country, causing great alarm!

The old writer however, was a doubting Thomas and he grew sarcastic in his comments upon the future of the attempts to solve the problem of flying. He ironically advised the men who are "projecting the contemplated railroad to the Pacific to consider the possibility of air ship competition as thereby they might save time and money by adopting the super-terreneau transportation line; by which passengers may expect to breakfast in New York; dine, perhaps, at a table d'hôte on some peak of the Rocky mountains and sup at San Francisco."

And so it goes. The aims, ambitions and efforts of one generation do not differ materially from those which preceded it. Only sometimes the effort of the past becomes the accomplishment of the present.

THE CAUSE OF GAS LEAVING SOOT.

We have received a number of letters in which complaints are made that the gas is dirty, that a sooty deposit is left, as in the case of coal and that therefore there must be something wrong with the gas. We have taken the matter up with Supt. McMillan, of the Portsmouth Gas Company, as we have ever found that he is always willing to consider any matter in relation to his business whether it be complaints or suggestions as to betterment of service. As to the present complaints, Mr. McMillan makes this statement, which thoroughly covers the case:

My Dear Mr. Taylor:

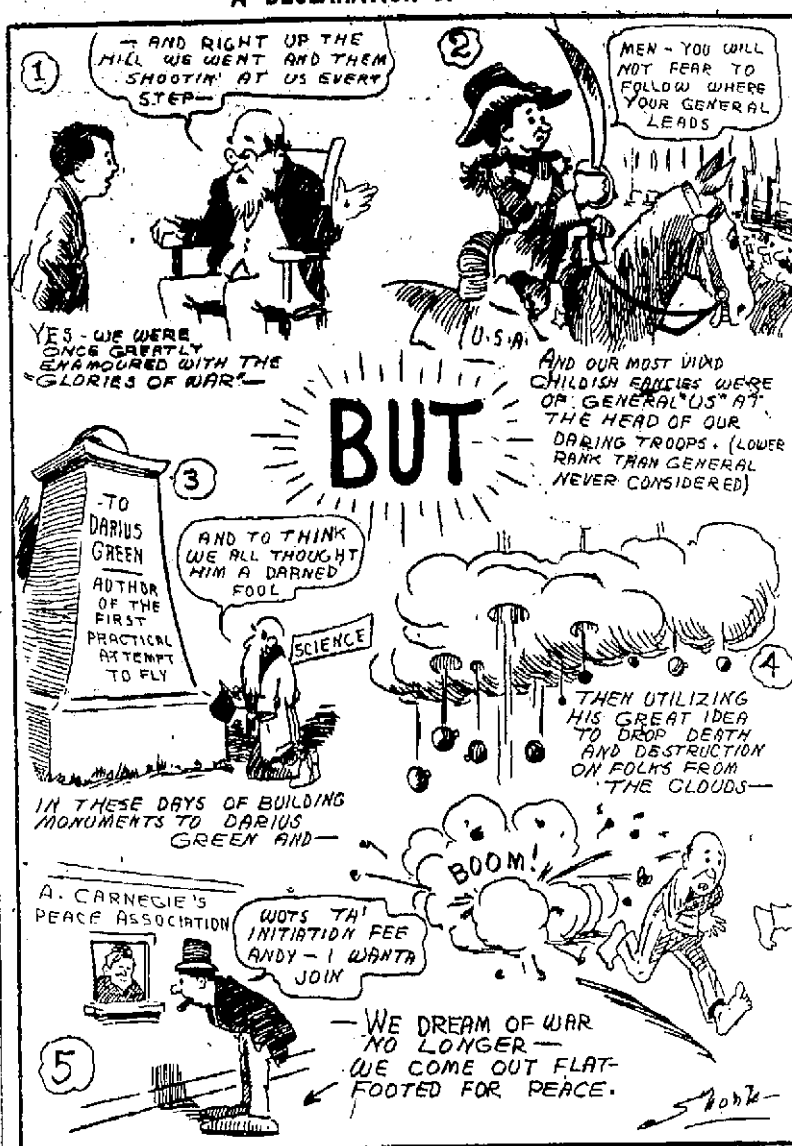

Referring to our conversation of Monday, at which time you remarked that you had heard a number of complaints with reference to gas blackening interiors, let me advise that this is merely an indication of imperfect combustion, which is due to one of two causes: The burners are not properly adjusted, or the burners are dirty and need cleaning. The same condition exists in a heating stove which shows yellow flame, and of course, these burners should receive attention in order that consumer may obtain best results.

Perfect combustion means that you are not obtaining the full heat unit value of the gas, and to cook with a range, or to attempt to heat a house with an appliance in which the burners are not properly regulated, is to burn gas and not get the benefit of all the heat units that are in the gas, and of necessity means a greater consumption than is necessary for the work done.

If any consumers who are experiencing this trouble will notify us, we will be pleased to call and do what we can to remedy same.

Thanking you for calling my attention to the matter, I am,
Yours respectfully,
JOHN McMILLAN,
Superintendent.

A DECLARATION OF PEACE.

WHAT, SO SOON!

Three senators, who by common consent have taken position as the steerers of the Republican majority in the upper house, called on Governor Willis, last week, together. They were greeted effusively. The glow of their welcome was not a bit cooled when they unfolded a long rigmarole of legislation they have considered, conspired and co-ordinated in inchoating and which they were only awaiting the approval by His Excellency to put on its way through the hopper.

In view of some violent denunciations of one-man-power, dictatorship and personal machine, last fall, did the executive rise in all the majority of outraged conscience and the mighty power of six feet-two hundred and fifty pounds and boot the trio down the capitol steps? Did he so much as give the seducers the stony stare and then coldly turn his back upon them? Not this jaw-bone over-thrower of usurpers and tyrants. In slapped one on the shoulder, dug another in the ribs, laid his hand on the knee of the third, winked the other eye and said: "Most excellent, superb; go to it, boys. I am back of it."

And thereupon the steerers arose and linking arms marched back to the senate to inform it, in loud and gleeful voice that its emancipation from the thralldom of the despot was complete and as the unthrottled representatives of the people it could proceed to make them all prosperous, happy and good.

And down stairs, at the same moment, Mr. Willis was attaching the can to an entirely efficient head of department, a most partisan Republican from this very county of Sciento, to make place for a personal favorite and a man who had helped the wheels to go 'round, that made him governor. Great is politics!

JACKSON COUNTY CORN YIELD.

Up in Jackson county our old friend Carp Stevenson, has been doing the farming stunt and he comes forward to record the results of his toil in the Jackson Standard-Journal. On seven acres of land Carp raised 560 bushels of corn for which he received $420 or an average of $60 an acre. In his farming Mr. Stevenson used 100 pounds of fertilizer, ploughed three times and harrowed four. The white corn averaged 30 bushel to the acre.

He made a rough estimate of the cost of the crop as follows: Plowing and harrowing, $24; planting, $4; cultivating, $9; cutting, $15; husking, $23; fertilizing, $7; minor items, $6; seed, $1; rent, $14; total, $108, or an average cost of $15 an acre, which leaves a profit of $45 an acre.

Not being a farmer ourselves, we are not prepared to give Carp the first prize, but the figures sound good. We would like to know however, what Judge Bannon, Judge Dever, George Davis, Belden Nichols and others who are city farmers like Stevenson, have to say and what they can show as against the Jackson record.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

The movement to secure a postponement of the improvement of the West Side pike from Union Mills to Dry Run until such time as the other roads for which contracts have been let are completed, is in the right direction and every effort should be made to bring about the desired result. As pointed out in the petitions being circulated, Gallia pike will be torn up next spring. So will the West Side pike by the itinerary. So will the Chillicothe pike between the end of the present paved road and Lucasville. If the road to Dry Run is torn up the isolation of Portsmouth will be complete. There will be no way of getting in or out except over temporary roads, and what they will be we can only judge by what we have had in the past. Added force is lent to the suggestion by the fact that there is at present a first class pike from Union Mills to Dry Run and no one would suffer by delay. With this road open the Lucasville route will be open to those desiring to go north and from Lucasville other parts of the county can be easily reached. Also every effort should be made to have the temporary roads around the proposed improvements made so substantially that the public will not have to risk life and property in order to travel on them.

Representative Sprague is to be congratulated upon the good committee assignments awarded him. He not only got an important chairmanship but he is also placed upon several of the big committees of the House and will have a say in shaping important legislation of the session. Mr. Sprague thus has what many legislators do not achieve in years of service, a chance to distinguish himself in his first term.

Since reading about the wages of those Western engineers we have definitely decided that if we ever change our vocation we would rather be an engineer than be governor.

Being so infernally good and spotlessly pure, the Youngstown Telegram puts in two-thirds of its time admiring itself and the remaining one-third in scolding its neighbors in the journalistic field because they are not as good as it is. Why is it these real, goody-goody always make such a confounded nuisance of themselves?

The Gallia Times grows indignant at the news that Edwin Jones is going to run for the Republican nomination for United States senator two years hence. Aw, be reasonable. If Ed finds any enjoyment in also running why raise a fuss about it.

It is strange but true. A legislative investigation of San Domingo affairs disclosed the fact that the best friend of Secretary Bryan, apostle of grape fruit, is named Beer.

PANDORA PIG

(Who Wouldn't Wash.)

Pandora Pig had just one fault; she wasn't cross or mean, But no one cared for her because she just would not keep clean.

Dirt made no difference at all to her; she didn't mind. She'd walk right through the biggest hole of mud that she could find.

To scold her was a waste of time; 'twas really a disgrace. The way she used to come to meals with dirty hands and face.

And when they tried to make her wash she'd sit around and mope; It always did affect her thus to hear them speak of soap.

She said: "It seems a foolish thing to wash myself today, Because I will be just as bad tomorrow when I play."

Near to Pandora's house there lived a butcher's crippled son; His parents felt so bad because he could not jump nor run.

And though they got him toys and things, he did not care a fig. He said, "I want for a playmate a really, truly pig."

His father started right away a playmate pig to find; Said he, "I do not care, I'll take a pig of ANY kind."

As he passed by Pandora's house he heard something go "Thud!" It was Pandora playing in the blackest kind of mud.

"Oh-ho, oh-ho!" the butcher said (they always speak like that.) "Pandora Pig, I'll take you home; run quick and fetch your hat."

And so Pandora went along, as dirty as could be. "You must be scrubbed," the butcher said, "and scrubbed, and scrubbed," said he.

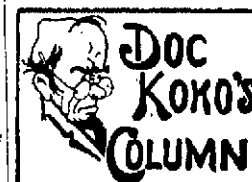

But when he got home and tried to clean her up he found She wouldn't wash, but kicked and threw herself upon the ground.

Now no one really knows for sure Pandora Pig's true fate, But my suspicions in the case I'll hasten to relate.

Soon after this, the butcher man displayed within his store A finer lot of sausage than he'd ever shown before.

I would not want to say it was Pandora, but I think You will agree with me she MAY have been the missing link.

I'm not real sure that we can tell just what this tale may mean, But, anyway, we all agree it's better to keep clean.

Waste of Water

During the flood of 1913, Lima received her share of the overflowing waters of the Ohio. The streets turned into rivers.

A dripping man, who apparently was suffering from an oversupply of wet goods inside, as well as out, staggered into a blacksmith shop. With a thick voice he asked for a monkey wrench, and, getting one, waded back into the street.

As he did not return immediately, the blacksmith went to the door to look for him. He was standing in three feet of water, working over a hydrant.

RUBBER HOSE CAUSE OF GAS EXPLOSION

William Kerr, cook at the Dravo Construction company's camp near Saco, Me., was painfully burned about the head, face and body, one window was blown out, and the interior of a room badly damaged, from a gas explosion at the rooming house of Katie Bauer, 716 Washington street, early Thursday morning.

Kerr had just arisen and was in the act of lighting the gas jet in his room when the explosion occurred. His body was enveloped in a sheet of flame, and the force of the explosion tore out the window of his room, including the stone ledge.

The explosion was caused by gas escaping from a rubber connection which was fastened to the gas pipe below the jet, connecting with a small gas stove in the room. The stove was turned over by the force of the explosion. Firemen said afterward that the odor of gas was strong in Kerr's room, indicating that the gas had been escaping some time before he awakened.

An alarm was turned into the Seventh street station just across the street, and firemen responded with chemicals. The blaze was extinguished with little difficulty, but not until the paper had been burned off the walls and the greater portion of the bed clothing ruined.

Kerr's burns required medical attention, and he will be laid up for several days. His face, neck, breast, arms, hands, legs and feet were painfully burned. Only his night clothing shielded his body from the flame of gas. At first it was thought that he would have to be removed to the hospital for treatment, but it was later decided to care for him at the Bauer home.

The house is the property of Philip M. Streich, and the damage is limited to the broken window, and the damaged walls.

Chief McQuat's horse developed a limp in its right hind leg on the way to the fire and he was late in arriving. After investigating the causes of the fire, he issued orders to Miss Bauer to discontinue the use of rubber gas connections in the house.

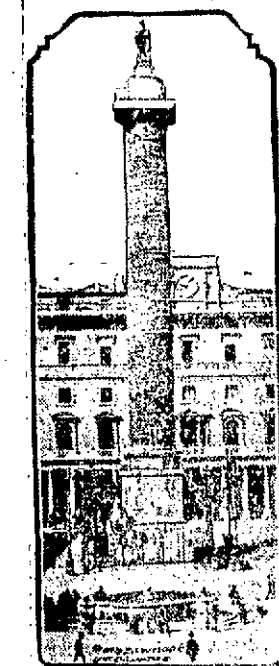

Kerr was employed as porter at the John Keefe saloon on Chillieth street until that firm went out of business.

GIVE THE USUAL VOTING SIGN OF THE ORDER, SAID WESTPHAL; THEN CITY COUNCIL ADJOURNED

With but three members present, namely Messrs. Schumacher, Wilson and Westphal, the city council lacked a quorum and was unable to take up the semi-annual appropriations Wednesday night.

City Solicitor Stanley McCall advised an adjournment until next Monday, declaring that even the presence of Judge George M. O'Brien would not help matters, as the council would still lack a sufficient number to suspend the rules and pass the ordinance. It was finally agreed that a meeting be held Friday night, January 29th, on which date Messrs. Goller, Shump and Mueller are expected to return from Florida.

Someone suggested that the meeting had better first be called to order. Mr. Schumacher moved the selection of Mr. Westphal as president. The youngest of the three duly elected members of the new board, suddenly leaped upon him. Advancing to the chair, he remarked that "this is one time the Democrats got the better of the chair and after a long, satisfying banquet, he turned to a single, announced he would accept a motion to adjourn.

Mr. Wilson jumped to his feet, and declaring he did not want this great meeting to pass without his participation, being "in it," said that in view of the fact that there was no quorum present he moved that adjournment be taken until the 29th.

BOY DENIES KNOWING ABOUT BRUSHART FIRE

Clarence Dunlop, aged 16 years, who is accused by his sister, Mrs. Ed Hammond of knowing something about the fire of the Jake Brushart barn the upper part of which is occupied by her husband, was arrested at his home near Ninth and Washington streets late Wednesday night.

The boy was questioned at some length by the mayor Thursday morning before he was turned loose over to the juvenile court for hearing. He denied ever having threatened to "burn up" his sister, denied ever having borrowed any money from her or her husband and said he never visited her home because he knew she did not like him. He said the only disagreement they had had was a week ago last Sunday when she called to visit their mother. A stray chicken he and mother had been feeding for a week attracted her notice, and she claimed that her husband had seen it in the alley and placed it in the yard. They had some words about it, and angered she left the house.

The boy vigorously denied having threatened his sister. He said he was formerly employed at the Braman book store. He is a well-mannered youth and the

WHEN "SHORTY" FELL

The quake felt at the corner of Second and Chillieth streets, Thursday morning and which was recorded at 7:30 o'clock, was not an echo from the big shake-up in sunny Italy, but occasioned when "Shorty," a strong lunged newspaper carrier, fell off an east bound street car. "Shorty" imagined the car stopped as it rounded the corner and he stepped off. Unfortunately for him the car was moving and as a consequence, "Shorty" hit the paved street with the previous end of his anatomy. Then he did a double shuffle, a turkey flop and ended with a gripe vine twist, bringing him up against the curb, an obstacle that prevented him from wrecking the walls of the Turkey building.

"Shorty" felt all around to see that he was still together and then painfully raised himself to a standing position. He mumbled something that indicated he was going to wreck the franchise of the Street Railroad company, picked up the scattered remains of his papers and hopped out Chillieth street.

WILLIAM PEERLESS BROWN

Here's a poem for William Peerless Brown. The lending babe in the Peerless town. Why? You—don't you know? Just twenty days ago— He was the first babe on New Year's Day, That came to town and came to stay. And when two weeks rolled around, Peerless had the greatest show in the Peerless Town. Ah! it was a bright and sunny winter's day, And merchants in autos lead the way, And with a bright and happy smile Gave costly presents—an effort, sure worth while; And the grand old President of the First National Bank, Who from a duty never shrunk, He too, had a kind and happy look, And gave ten dollars recorded in a Bank Book, And The Portsmouth Daily Times, That collects money in pennies and dimes Had all along the story told. With another present—gave ten dollars in gold. An elderly lady gave a year's subscription For The Portsmouth Times that tells of all creation; There were florists' choicest flowers, lovely and gay. That carried cheerfulness in the home that day, And when his mother presented him to the crowd, All the folks cheered and Peerless cried out loud. Yes, it was a happy, friendly bunch, But Peerless was mad, he wanted his lunch. And so with parents and friends all around, Powder made a picture of William Peerless Brown. All in all, it was certainly fine. Won't be repeated in William's life time. And this isn't all to tell. What is worth doing at all is worth doing well. In the Peerless City they never stop. They sure do things up tip-top. In just a short week or more, Crowds will fill Columbia's door. And will see a moving picture of William Peerless Brown. With friends and presents all around. Just because he was the first babe on New Year's Day That came to town and came to stay.
